

WEEKLY ASSIGNMENT

- Do the daily reading (found below).
- Begin to notice the way you think about money.
- Begin to notice the way you think about yourself.
- Begin to notice how you think about relationships.
- Be able to answer these questions:

Do you believe there's enough for you?

How are you going about getting what you need?

What things do you feel you have plenty of money for and what things feel "too expensive"?

HOW TO USE THE DAILY READINGS

Before beginning each reading, take time to clear your space. Light a candle and relax. Ask Spirit's guidance in a time of silence. This will help you be more open and receptive to these words of support. The readings are to support your shift in consciousness from "not enough" to realizing that you live in an abundant universe. After your reading, spend a few more moments in silence, allowing the words to soak in and rest easily in your consciousness. Then intend for the words to be with you throughout the day, supporting you in this new way of thinking. Remember that God's (Source's) will for you is good and these words of support are to deepen your awareness of this truth.

At the end of week, start over and do the daily readings again until we meet next month. This is not required but encouraged, to reinforce your new prosperity mindset.

Optional: A suggested song is included for that day's reading to reinforce your new way of thinking.
